

What Every Parent Needs To Know: Signs, Symptoms, and Help for Teen Substance Abuse

Tuesday
March 31, 2009
6:30 pm

At Wilbur McMahon School

Refreshments will be served.

Goal: To educate parents and other adults about the warning signs, safety risks and legal ramifications of underage drinking and drug use

Who Should Attend: Anyone from Little Compton and the surrounding communities, including parents and adults who work with middle and high school students who want to learn more about the serious consequences of underage drinking and drug use.

Presenters:

Sergeant John Faria of the Little Compton Police Department will discuss current trends of alcohol and drug use among teens.

Robert H. Humphrey Esq., attorney and adjunct professor at Salve Regina University, will review the laws and consequences for youthful offenders of drug and alcohol related crimes.

Jodi Ibbotson and Daniel Carreiro of Little Compton will share their family's experiences with teen addiction.

Shelagh Stone, M.A. from Clinical Services for Youth will speak about her role as the new Student Assistance Counselor at Wilbur McMahon School.

Daniel Carreiro will speak at a student assembly on March 24 at 9:00 AM at Wilbur McMahon School.

